ATTEMPTED HOLDUP

J. J. LANG, THE DRUGGIST, FOILS "THE MAN WITH THE GUN"

John Lang, the new druggist at 129 South Central avenue, had quite a thrilling holdup experience Saturday night. At about 9:30 a young man, apparently 20 years of age, nice looking and well dressed, came in and asked change for a five dollar bill. Mr. Lang was in the rear room and his assistant, of whom the request was made, called to him and asked if he could accommodate the man. He came to the register, opened it, looked in and said: "I have only small change and several bills." Immediately the man exclaimed: "You may just hand over the bills to me." Struck by the remark Mr. Lang looked up and saw a revolver in the hand of the man and pointed directly at him. He immediately pushed the register drawer shut, sprang into the back room and called lustily for help. The man at once turned, hurried out of the store, ran south to the corner of Hawthorne, where a Hudson limousine was standing, with a man at the steering wheel. The burglar sprang in and the machine was rushed westward. Mr. Lang at once notified the police, who responded promptly but by this time, of course, all trace of the bandits was lost. The whole neighborhood was aroused and a diligent search was made for the machine but it had disappeared. Mr. Lang and his assistant both got a good view of the man and can easily identify him if he is caught.

THE COOKMAN FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Perry, daughter and son-in-law of Rev. and Mrs. William Cookman of 215 South Pacific avenue, have returned to their home in McFarland, Cal., after making quite a visit here. Letters from Miss Anne Cookman, who is touring the east with Miss Robinson, indicate that the two young women are having a royal good time. They took in the Grand Canyon on their way east and when last heard from were in New York after visiting Washington. They were going to Boston and interesting points in Maine and were having a wonderful trip. Prof. Alfred Cookman is taking a marine biological course at Venice.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY?

Mrs. H. R. Darling of 1519 South San Fernando Road on returning home at about 9:30 last Thursday night saw a machine standing across the street and a man by it apparently fixing something. She hastened into the house thinking some one had called on her and she would find them at the front door. No one was there, however, but her little fox-terrier seemed greatly excited, barking frantically. An open window was discovered by Mrs. Parker and the dog was put outside through it and immediately attacked some one hiding near by as hurried footsteps were heard retreating. When Mrs. Darling went to the front of the house the machine was gone. The police were summoned and they found many footprints on the ground outside the window which had been forced open and finger prints on the sill, of which careful measurements were taken.

WEATHER FORECAST: Fair tonight and Wednesday. Partly cloudy Wednesday morning.

MR. PRESTON WARNS

DWELLS ON CRITICAL GASOLINE SITUATION IN WHICH MANY TOURISTS ARE CAUGHT

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Preston of North Jackson street who returned last week from Glen Ranch thought they would try the other extreme so far as elevation is concerned and go to the seashore. Accordingly they drove to Oceanside for a camping and fishing outing from which they have just returned. They found it much cooler than in the mountains but in some respects the excursion was a disappointment and Mr. Preston is issuing a word of warning to fellow travelers. During the whole trip they were able to buy just four gallons of gasoline, two gallons in each lot. Fortunately they had started with a larger supply than usual so were able to get home, but at Santa Ana and all the towns through which they passed machines were lined up waiting for the gas wagon to come along as the local dealers had none to sell them. ACTS NOT WORDS

EVENING NEWS THE PEOPLE'S PAPER—NO BLUFF—STEADY FORWARD MARCH

It is the plan of the Glendale Evening News not to give out statements in advance as to its method of procedure. A month ago when we got ready to move our plant to the new building the notice was given in Saturday's issue that the change would be made Monday to 139 South Brand boulevard, and the change was made as stated.

Today we are installing a twenty-four inch face Western Union clock in front of the building. Although this clock was ordered six months ago no statement has been made as to the installation until today, when the mechanics are putting it in place. As will be noticed by observing it is one of the finest electrical clocks in the city, and the time corrections will be made every hour automatically, under the direction of the Western Union Telegraph system. It has been installed for the convenience of the traveling public, and we know that our act in this particular will be appreciated.

The Evening News has many worthy projects in view that are for the betterment of newspaper conditions in Glendale, and when the proper time comes an announcement will be made, and our readers may be assured that it will be lived up to in every particular. On September 1st of the present year the Evening News will have been published as a daily newspaper seven years, and at that time the management of the News will take great pleasure in asking the citizens of Glendale to unite in celebrating this anniversary.

When the Evening News was launched as a daily seven years ago there was great doubt in the minds of many as to whether it was possible for a daily paper to get sufficient patronage to continue in business. This doubt remained in the minds of many people for several years, but the publisher who had looked over the field carefully before starting the daily had no doubt whatever as to the final outcome of the project. For several years the business was not a paying one, and yet no stone was left unturned to give the citizens of Glendale a newsy paper six days in the week. Right on the heels of this building-up process came the war period which, of course, tended to retard business progress of all kinds, and now since the war has closed and business has picked up in all lines it is assumed that there is a better field in Glendale for a daily paper. The management of the News has aimed at all times to put all profits from the plant into making still a better paper and intends so to continue so long as he is in the business, and it may be well to mention incidentally that he has no desire at present to go out of business.

The life thus far of the Evening News may be compared to that of a young citrus orchard. At its beginning, like the orchard, it needed careful attention, and was not in the position to give remuneration for the expense of caring for it. The building up of the paper has been a gradual one on the part of the publisher. There has not been a desire at any time to publish any article for financial gain that did not meet with the approval of the publisher, and did not seem to be for the best interest of the community. Thus it has not been the purpose of the publisher to grasp for dollars at the expense of the good of the community of Glendale.

At the time of the anniversary on September 1st next, the Evening News will publish a special edition of many thousand copies, a special order now being on file from one firm for 3000 copies, and the main purpose of this edition will be to represent Glendale in every phase of her industrial, educational, religious and commercial life. While we will expect a liberal patronage from the merchants and citizens of Glendale, yet the grasp for the almighty dollar is not placed first. It had been the purpose of the publisher to give several pages of space gratuitously to the various departments of municipal activities of our city, and such is still our purpose unless we are forced to change our mind on this question by asking that the Evening News receive pay for space given to the welfare of the City if it is decided by those in charge of the city affairs to pay for space in other publications. As previously stated, we are not publishing a paper for the immediate receipt of the dollar. The money will come to us as we progress, as it comes to the orchard owner who carefully has cared for his trees for a period of years.

We employ able writers regularly on the Evening News and it is not necessary to get in outside talent on our special editions. Members of the Evening News staff are all specialists in their respective lines of work. That combined with the fact that the equipment of the mechanical department is built along labor-saving principles, the expense to our patrons is greatly reduced considering the excellent service rendered.

We take pleasure at this time in thanking the citizens of Glendale for the liberal support they have given the Evening News in the past and for the support they are giving it at present. We assure our patrons that we belong to no political ring and that we are not controlled by any organization whatever in the city. The Glendale Evening News is strictly a paper for the people and so will it remain so long as it is in the hands of the present management.

BOUND FOR YELLOWSTONE

Miss Sadie Houdyshel of North Orange street started Sunday evening for Yellowstone Park in company with three other teachers. They will go by way of Salt Lake where they will make a stop. After about five days in the Park they expect to go on to Vancouver, B. C., and then come south by way of Portland. Miss Houdyshel will stop at Montague, Cal., to visit her brother and sister there before returning to Glendale. Her sister, Miss Sybil Houdyshel, has just returned to Glendale from an outing at San Diego with a teacher chum. While there they visited a mutual friend and took in all the interesting sights of the locality.

PARTY AMALGAMATION

COMMITTEE OF FORTY-EIGHT AND LABOR CONVENTIONS VOTE TO UNITE FOR THIRD PARTY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, July 13.—The amalgamation of various groups holding conventions here and planning a third party will be completed soon, it was believed at noon today as a result of the action of the Committee of Forty-eight convention and Labor Party convention in voting in favor of the amalgamation. A joint meeting of the two conventions will be held later today. The amalgamation resolution was passed unanimously in both conventions after it had looked for a time as if they were hopelessly apart.

It was announced that the joint convention plans to begin nominations for president and vice president at 8 o'clock tonight.

Rev. George Chalmers Richmond of Chicago startled many observers this morning when he made a highly unconventional prayer at the opening session of the Committee of Forty-eight convention. He prayed:

"The Republican party hates Jesus and takes it orders from Wall Street." He declared that England is God's enemy and "America is linked with her." He said: "We thank Thee for what the Russian people are doing and for the new spirit in India." He concluded by praying: "Destroy Palmerism, Penroseism and other paganisms. Destroy Morganism and Carnegieism. Bless Eugene Debs. Give President Wilson power to rise above the low moral standards which have afflicted his administration."

REVOLUTION IN BOLIVIA

GOVERNMENT OVERTURNED AND REPUBLICAN LEADER ASSUMES THE PRESIDENCY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SANTIAGO, Chili, July 13.—A dispatch from La Paz, capital of Bolivia received today, said that revolutionists have overturned the Bolivian government, and that the republican leader, Saazedra has assumed the provisional presidency. It is not known whether the remainder of the country has joined the uprising.

Government troops of La Paz joined the revolution and troops are marching from other cities to become a part of the revolting forces.

Another dispatch said that President Guiterrez-Gerra and his cabinet have fled from La Paz. It is believed that a counter revolt will start immediately.

RUSSIANS EXECUTE ENGLISHMAN

VLADIVOSTOK DISPATCHES SAY AMERICANS NARROWLY ESCAPED THE SAME FATE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, July 13.—An anarchistic band of Russian Bolsheviki called "The Red-Black Guard," executed John Freedman, an English subject, and several Americans narrowly escaped a similar fate during a reign of terror at Nikolaiecsk, according to a State Department dispatch from the American consul at Vladivostok.

TRIANGLE RACE

DODGE, COKER AND MUSHET CANDIDATES FOR SUPERVISORIAL HONORS IN 5TH DIST.

The Fifth Supervisorial District of Los Angeles county is not lacking for office-seeking timber. Supervisor Jonathan Dodge is asking for re-election. Harry P. Coker of Glendale is soliciting the favorable consideration of the people and W. C. Mushet steps forward and asks to take the reins in this triangle contest and be first man under the wire at the primary election August 31st. The columns of the Evening News are open to any one or all three of these gentlemen. They are all good citizens of the county and it is right that they should have their claims presented in a business-like way.

L. A. COUPLE BUILDING FINE GLENDALE HOME

Dr. and Mrs. Edna McLaughlin of Los Angeles, who bought the corner lot at 401 East Harvard of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, have had Contractor Bowles take out for them a permit for the erection of a modern 5-room residence and a garage, to cost $4000. Rev. C. A. Cole, who lives just in the rear of this lot, at 132 South Kenwood, and who had raised a fine garden on it, says that while he hates to lose all the fine corn, tomatoes, sweet potatoes and such that were giving him such fair promise of abundant yields, yet he is glad to see the improvement come, and, anyhow, he has had the fun of cultivating the ground.

PARRY ACCIDENT

VICTIMS ARE NOW BEING CARED FOR AT HOME OF MRS. A. L. BURSON

Rev. E. F. Ballenger, pastor of the Seventh-Day Baptist Church of Riverside, who came to the assistance of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Parry in the auto accident of which they were the victims Monday, gives the following account of it:

"I was coming in on the stage about 9:30 a. m. and was two miles this side of Puente when we came upon the wreck which had occurred a few minutes before. An inspection showed that one of the front tires had blown out and that had caused Mr. Parry to lose control of the auto which turned turtle, pinning him and his wife underneath the machine.

"The Parrys had just purchased a place in Pomona and were on their way to it with some of their smaller household effects. When I came upon the scene the bystanders who had given first aid had lifted the auto from them and were lifting Mr. Parry and placing him in an auto standing near. Mrs. Parry had not been touched yet. She was taken up and placed in another auto and both were taken to a hospital at El Monte. The most severe injury to Mr. Parry appeared to be a bruise upon his head which confused him and prevented him from being clear headed enough to answer questions as to who they were and where their home was, but in about three-fourths of an hour they were sufficiently recovered to give their names. The first friend they could remember was Mrs. Cavell and that was the reason her name was involved in the first account. She was not with them."

Examination by surgeons and X-ray showed that Mrs. Parry's left shoulder was dislocated and that the scapula was also fractured. They arranged for an automobile to convey them to Glendale and both were brought to the home of their old neighbor and friend, Mrs. A. L. Burson, now living at 375 West Broadway, Mr. Ballenger accompanying them there. The home in which the Parrys had been living is at 517 S. Louise street.

The Ford in which they were traveling was pretty well used up. Two wheels were wrecked and both axles were bent, and it was torn up in general.

M'PHAILS IN KANSAS

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McPhail of 318 Ivy are in Kansas, the former having left for that state last week to attend a business meeting of a flour company of which he is a stockholder and officer, and the latter having been called by telegram Sunday to Parkerville, Kansas, on account of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Jane Barber.

LEGION PICNIC

EX-SOLDIERS AND FRIENDS ENJOY JOLLY AND PROFITABLE OUTING

The picnic given by the Glendale Post of the American Legion appears to have fully met the expectations of its promoters and all who participated. To begin with the meeting place at La Crescenta Lodge, which is about two miles beyond the car line, is very beautiful and is fanned by a cool breeze which swept up the canyon.

Ex-soldiers and their friends to the number of about 175 responded to the invitation and were on hand when the basket lunches which all were instructed to provide, were spread on the tables furnished by the management of the lodge. The eats were also supplemented by the goodies dispensed by the canteen which sold sandwiches, cold drinks, watermelons, ice cream, candy and cake.

After the picnic lunch a program of contests took place. It opened with a free-for-all men's race in which were about fifteen contestants for two prizes, a $5 merchandise order and a $3 order. The first prize went to Dan Cowlin, the second to Joe Wilson.

A free-for-all women's race was the second event for which a $3 merchandise order was the prize. That trophy went to Mrs. Harry Wilson.

A three-legged men's race was won by Fred Jenkins and Eustace Rowley, who were rewarded by $3 orders.

The race for men over thirty was won by James McBryde, who pocketed a $3 order.

The fifth event was a rather novel

SEEING YOSEMITE

LINDLEYS AND REEDS HAVE DELIGHTFUL AUTO TRIP TO FAMOUS VALLEY

Arthur G. Lindley and his daughter, Zelma, returned Saturday night from a two weeks' auto tour and stay in the Yosemite Valley which they found a great treat. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd H. Reed. In going north they went as far as Fresno the first day and camped in the beautiful auto park which that city has provided for the comfort and pleasure of tourists. The next day they drove to Raymond and made the entrance to the valley through the wooded mountain country, the scene of early mining operations made famous by Bret Harte in the stories of old California which had such a wide vogue. Their route took them through Coarse Gold, Grub Gulch and other suggestive settlements which are now lumber centers. At Wawona they found a beautiful camping place for the night and the next day drove through Mariposa Grove of Big Trees, reaching the entrance to Yosemite that afternoon in time to descend the steep road into the valley by the three o'clock control, as the authorities to avoid accidents regulate the travel up and down in the steepest part and do not allow vehicles going both ways on the thoroughfare at the same time. During their stay in the valley they camped in Camp No. 7 across the river from Camp Curry, and took in the leading points of interest, visiting the Nevada and Vernal Falls, Mirror Lake, Bridal Veil Falls and touring the valley, which is about seventeen miles long.

CLUB COMMITTEE LUNCHEON

The Year-Book Committee of the Tuesday Afternoon Club of which Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker is chairman has been invited to meet for luncheon and a social afternoon Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John Robert White in Hermosa. The ladies who will be present and confer in regard to club matters are: Mrs. Ocker, Mrs. S. R. Frazee, Mrs. Andrew Findlay, Mrs. W. W. Worley, Mrs. E. H. Willisford, president of the club, and the hostess, Mrs. White.

NO-LEGGED MAN EXPERT WORKMAN

People living in the neighborhood of 1318 East Harvard are greatly entertained by the remarkable work of C. F. Morgan, who is remodeling an old building into a modern residence at that number. Both his legs were amputated close to the thighs years ago, yet he gets around easily and manages to do as much work as the most expert craftsman. He not only puts in concrete perfectly, but climbs ladders and does carpenter work. Mr. Morgan is a towerman for the S. P. and not only attends to this difficult work most thoroughly, but occupies his hours when off duty by doing the kind of work detailed above.

WOMEN IN POLITICS

GLENDALIANS ATTEND LUNCHEON FOR MRS. GEORGE BASS AT MEN'S CITY CLUB

Mrs. Charles H. Toll of Kenneth Road had the pleasure Monday of being a guest at the speakers' table at the luncheon of the Men's City Club of Los Angeles at which Mrs. George Bass, national chairman for women of the Democratic party, and Mrs. Kincaid, recently returned to California after a stay of several years in the east, were guests of honor and speakers.

The address made by Mrs. Bass was very favorably received and she presented the arguments for the active participation of women in politics in a convincing manner, Mrs. Toll said, dwelling upon their knowledge and experience in social welfare work which have made them alive to the needs of women and children now for the first time having full political representation. She gave the Democratic party credit for giving women greater participation and representation in the work of the party than Republcans have done.

Mrs. Kincaid spoke with great enthusiasm of the impression California has made upon her on returning to it, how alive, wide-awake and in the van of progress it seems to be, and she predicted that the leadership of our country would pass from the east to the west.

Another Glendalian who was also at the speakers' table was Frederick Baker.

PLANS OF HUNTLEYS

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Smith moved from Central avenue to their new home at 416 West Wilson avenue July 1st and are now beginning to feel like established residents. At the same date Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Larson, who purchased the house in which the Smiths had been living, took possession of it and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Huntley transferred their effects to the new garage Mr. Huntley recently built in the rear of the residence and they expected to leave right away on an auto trip to the north but were detained by business and will not go until the last of the present week. The party will include Mr. and Mrs. Huntley and daughter Virginia, and her chum, Miss Evelyn Gregg. Their first stop will be in Sequoia National Park, where they plan to spend a month. From there they may go north to San Francisco. On returning Mr. Huntley expects to build on the new tract "up on the hill."

FARM FIRES' TOLL

Of 38,266 fires involving farm property in the United States last year, 75 per cent were due to negligence and preventable, according to figures compiled by the National Board of Fire Underwriters. Uninsured buildings or those insured in local mutual companies destroyed by flames are not included in the total. The loss is estimated at $18,166,701.

Analysis of the loss shows that lightning was the principal incendiary and that not one building fitted with lightning rods properly wired was destroyed by fire thus started. Years ago the farm building without its lightning rods was an exception; today the reverse is true. Defective chimneys, which a little care would remedy, come second as a cause.

A farm house is not often set afire by lightning, but barns are its especial prey. Being filled with material that is readily inflammable, they quickly ignite and usually nothing can be done to check the flames. Since the means of fighting fire once started in farm buildings is so limited, due to isolation, it would seem that regard for one's welfare would demand careful inspection of fire hazards. A heavy charge is made against neglect by entirely preventable farm fires, with a loss last year of $6,000,000. High cost of replacement would seem to make it the part of wisdom to exercise the proverbial ounce of prevention.

PHYSICAL TRAINING

There is good doctrine in the Greek ideal of a sound mind in a sound body. Those who oppose military training for the youth of America, fearing it would make us militaristic, can not have the same objection to physical education. Draft examinations which showed deficiencies in physical development emphasized the necessity for health supervision and instruction as well as development of the mental powers of our youth.

When an epidemic is threatened or disease gets a foothold all preventative measures and precautions are invoked to suppress it. Might it not be far cheaper to the nation to develop sound bodies to resist disease than to take steps to eradicate it after long neglect has invited its entrance?

TO CELEBRATE ARMISTICE DAY

Through arrangements with the war department, the American Legion is to be the instrument for the distribution of Victory medals, one of which is to go to each American soldier, sailor, marine, field clerk or nurse who served honorably during the war. Distribution will be made on Armistice Day in a series of simultaneous meetings to be held by the Posts.

It is planned by the Legion to make the coming Armistice Day one of the greatest patriotic celebrations ever held in the United States. It is to be made not only a tribute to the 100,000 Americans who gave their lives in the world war, but also to the millions of their allies who made the supreme sacrifice.

A service to the country in stimulating thought of the ideals for which Americans fought in the war will be performed by the quickening of sentiment that will come from this great event.

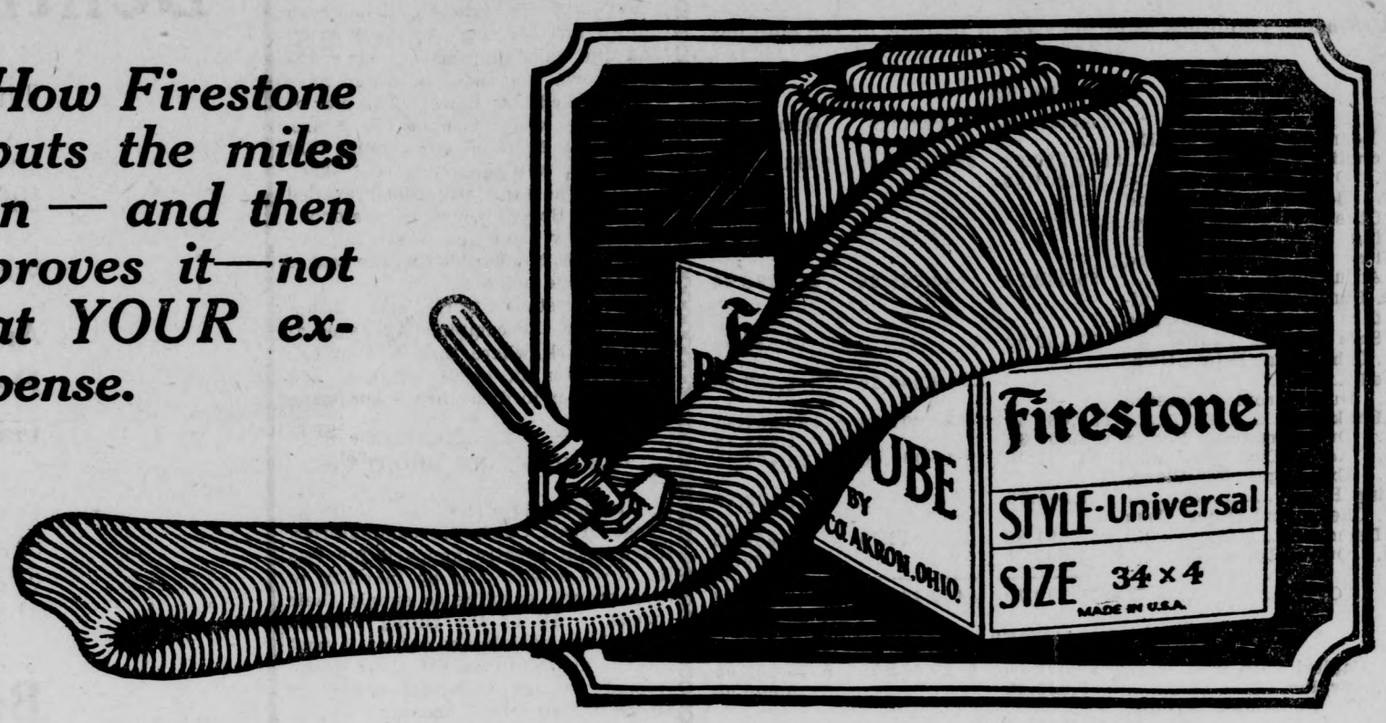
A big-scale road test on 3,200 tubes

How Firestone puts the miles in — and then proves it—not at YOUR expense.



No other tubes in the world are road tested on so big a scale as Firestones. The Yellow Cab Company of Chicago uses Firestone Tubes exclusively on its 800 taxi cabs. The service of these tubes is checked constantly —improvements and developments are arrived at.

By close watching of a large number of tubes in service—not confined to isolated instances, the conclusions are accurate and definite.

Firestone puts the best in materials into tubes by establishing purchasing experts at Singapore, center of the world's rubber market. Firestone puts the best in workmanship into tubes by organizing the crack manufacturing organization of the industry on a profit-sharing basis.

And then subjects the finished product to this big-scale road test—in order to get you more for your tube money and more miles out of your tires. And yet Firestone Tubes cost no more than the ordinary kind.

geles they could find none for sale either. Mr. Preston is therefore warning his friends to take these things well under consideration before starting on an auto tour.

Their disappointment in the fishing was due to the tremendously heavy surf, the highest that has been known on this coast in many years and due, it is supposed, to some distant storm the waves of which have just reached this shore. The pier at Oceanside, which is none too secure, was being battered so severely that the public was being warned to keep off it. The same situation prevailed at Long Beach where they stopped on the way home and where the pier was being bombarded by the waves in the same manner.

The Prestons were also disappointed in the camping privileges at Ocean Park where they had to beg their water in small amounts and find shelter in dusty brush bordering the beach.

THE GASOLINE SHORTAGE

Glendale motorists, as well as those of all California communities, have been greatly annoyed for two or three weeks past by inability to buy enough gasoline to supply their needs. All of the filling stations have been completely out of it part of the time and as yet there is no remedy in sight. Producers declare there is an actual shortage of oil, from which gasoline is refined, and that no relief from present conditions is in sight until winter, at least. Eastern advices are generally to the effect that there is little or no shortage there, yet in some places the price is as high as 50 cents a gallon, while in California, with its acute shortage, the prevailing price is 23c to 24c, that is, in the vicinity of Los Angeles. This morning many filling stations received a partial supply and soon autos were lined up for blocks awaiting a chance to get their ration.

SIX-HOUR DAY FALLACY

The American Federation of Labor has declared through its convention a determination to begin a drive for the six-hour day. Its advocates argue that the shorter workday will provide employment for more men.

The argument would come better recommended if there were many men seeking jobs. In a day of great underproduction and shortages of both labor and materials, however, the necessity of providing more jobs is not apparent.

Labor leaders commonly have two objects: To keep down the cost of living and to improve the conditions and rewards of union members. Both are laudable purposes. It should be plain to all of them, however, that the fundamental factor in high cost is under-production, and that the sure way to bring down prices is to produce more goods. But more goods cannot be produced by reducing the hours of employment 25 per cent. Any such process is likely to increase the cost of living by just that much.

Labor cannot eat its cake and have it.

LONDON HONORS PERSHING

Presentation of a sword to General Pershing by the city of London was buried in the news dispatches of the day, but it was a handsome acknowledgement of the part American soldiers played in winning the victory and helped to make amends for the grudging way in which a British military leader mentioned our troops' part in the war. Every veteran who went from these shores to save Europe and America from German rule was thus honored thru their commander.

A sword presented by the people of the British capital to a distinguished American soldier passes almost unnoticed, but it is an event whose importance is not to be minimized. It is not an expression from one Englishman, or a little group of Englishmen, to an eminent citizen of the United Ctates, but a gift from millions of Britons whose sentiment for America it expresses.

Bentley-Built Bungalows

The building activity of the past year has in a measure relieved the home shortage, but the situation is still critical. If Glendale is to continue to hold her place among the cities of the South she must provide homes for all of those who wish to live here.

Are You Renting a Home?
Have You Money to Invest?
Have You Unimproved Property Lying Idle?

If you belong to any of these three classes you can help and you should help to provide Glendale with more homes. If you don't know about

Potatoes Hungarian Style

A Daily Recipe by Delmonico's Chef

POTATOES HUNGARIAN STYLE

Fry two ounces of chopped onion in butter together with a coffee spoon of paprika. Add two peeled, pressed and sliced tomatoes, one pound of potatoes peeled and sliced somewhat thick in cylindrical shape and moisten just enough to cover with bouillon. Cook while almost entirely reducing the moistening and sprinkle with chopped parsley at the last moment. NICHOLAS M. SABATINI.

YOU can make your dining room a "little Delmonico's" by using the recipes of their famous chef which appear in The Examiner every morning.

These recipes are not only original, but they appear exclusively in The Examiner. They offer a widely varied menu and aid in the conservation of food by suggesting how to tastefully make use of odds and ends from "yesterday's dinner."

"Did Christ and the Apostles Keep the 7th Day Sabbath?"

Welcome!

James Culver recently sold his residence property on South Louise, between Maple and Windsor Road, and bought a home at 1134 San Rafael, and two other residence properties near by, one a 4-room and the other a 6-room house. He is now working on Manley M. Johnson's new brick and tile residence at 365 West Doran, which is very near completion.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Worley of 311 North Jackson street have had a busy time the last ten days entertaining old friends, Judge and Mrs. Emil P. Rosenberger, of Montgomery, Ala., whom they have been taking on sight-seeing trips to the beaches, and other points of interest to tourists. Today they are at Catalina and tomorrow night they leave for the north.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Davis have just sold their home at 225 South Central avenue and will move to 118 West Colorado street. They have sold to Mr. and Mrs. Windham of Hollywood and will give possession in about three weeks. Mrs. Davis feels a little pang at parting with the property in the beautifying of which she has taken a considerable part, but she thinks she will like her new home.

Robert M. Jackson, who has been critically ill for some time, was taken to the Glendale Sanitarium Monday night. He has been subject to severe attacks of a similar nature for a number of years but this is the worst one he has experienced and his friends are much concerned. He has been a resident of Glendale for many years, a member of the Board of City Trustees and prominent in other civic organizations. He has a host of friends who share the anxiety of his relatives.

E. Pentecost and family, who have been living in Glendale at 1107 East Wilson avenue for a year or more, are moving to Denver, Colo., this week, very reluctantly, but the move is made necessary on account of Mr. Pentecost, who is employed by the American Railway Express Company, having been transferred to the latter point. They came out here for Mrs. Pentecost's health, which has been fully restored and will make every endeavor to secure a transfer back to this city of their choice.

L. A. Heacock and wife arrived last night from Attica, Kansas, and were taken by their son, A. B. Heacock, to the home near Compton. They will come to Glendale next week with A. B. and family to occupy the latter's home at 709 East Windsor Road, after spending nearly a year on Dr. Munk's ranch a mile and a quarter southeast of Compton. L. A. and wife, both over 80 years of age, will be in Glendale to live, for the third time in the past six years, they coming each time from the old home of half a century or more in Kansas. They sold their property at 630 East Lomita just before their last return to Kansas, but will probably buy again this trip with a view to ending their days here.

TIME TABLE

Pasadena-Ocean Park BUS LINE

Hourly service between Glendale and Pasadena and hourly service between Glendale and the beaches. Cars go east 15 minutes after every hour omitting 9:15 a. m. Going west 30 minutes after every hour. Last car reaching Glendale from beaches 9:15 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Whiting are having the pleasure of entertaining an old Princeton College chum of Mr. Whiting's, Dr. Frank Wilbur, and his wife, of Asbury Park. They arrived last Friday and expect to be here for several weeks. It is their first visit to Southern California and they are greatly delighted with it, which, of course, makes it pleasant for their hosts who are such loyal boosters for the state and for Glendale.

Mrs. O. W. Esselman of 1100 South Glendale avenue is eagerly anticipating the arrival of her mother, Mrs. A. U. Forbell, whom she expects on the California Limited from Brooklyn, N. Y., tonight. Mrs. Forbell will be the guest of her daughter for two months. She is accompanied on her western trip by Miss Cook, also of Brooklyn, who may decide to remain here permanently with Miss Gertrude Forrest of 123 E. Chestnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Harrington of 334 North Howard street are entertaining Miss Ohlandt of Davenport, Iowa, who arrived last Thursday with Miss Dau, who is the guest of Mrs. Leon Sonntag. It is Miss Ohlandt's first visit to this part of the country and her enthusiasm for it is mounting so high that she is ready to join the Harringtons in persuading friends to come out here and locate, for the Harringtons would like to attract to Glendale a colony of their relatives and acquaintances. They are hoping Miss Ohlandt may join the colony some time in the future if not now.

There has been installed on the front of the Evening News building an electrical clock that will be a great accommodation to the traveling public. It is at your service. It is Western Union time.

relay race to men and women in pairs, the men being required to race up a hill and then give the stick to the women who raced down the hill. The prizes for this went to Joe Wilson and Mrs. James McBryde.

Ball games were played with much enjoyment both by participants and spectators.

A small pig was raffled off, the bidding being spirited, and when the hammer fell James McBryde found himself the owner.

Fine music for dancing was furnished by Alvin McKenzie, Al Herbert, Ed Moniot and Gordon Clayton, all members of the local Post. The pianist was relieved from time to time by Miss Mattie Rowley.

An informal expression was taken of the appreciation which members of the Post feel for the generous cooperation of local merchants in contributing the prizes bestowed on contestants.

Returns from the canteen netted about $175, which will be used to defray the expenses of delegates to the convention that is to be held in San Diego August 23-25, and also meet the expense of operating the club rooms of the Post during the summer.
